DESCRIPTION

2008 Ford Mustang 2dr Conv Shelby GT500 for sale

Quick, name the most powerful Ford Mustang ever. If you think it's from the late 1960s or early '70s, go back to listening to that Jimi Hendrix eight-track -- you're a few decades off. The correct answer is the 2008 Ford Mustang Shelby GT500. With a 500-horsepower supercharged V8, this "King of the Road" Mustang promises to push its jockey into the seat with even more gusto than any pony of the past. In addition to the supercharged V8, the Shelby GT500 features a six-speed manual transmission, a tuned suspension, and meaty Brembo brakes with 14-inch front rotors fitted with four-piston front calipers. Of course there's a beefed-up chassis that's up to the task of handling all the power belted out by that monster motor. It all works quite well -- the Shelby GT500 is more than a one-dimensional straight-line stormer. It's actually a more agile performer than a few things on its spec shee...
